

1 bedroom penthouse of rent in Barcelona Gothic Quarter

This beautiful 1 bedroom penthouse of rent in Barcelona Gothic Quarter covers 45 m2, and has a terrace of 15 m2. With a total capacity to sleep two-three people, this property is perfect for a couple wanting to explore the city whilst staying in refined accommodation.

The property is situated on the sixth floor of a building, accessible via an elevator. This attic is kept comfortable with double-glazing, and large windows over the kitchen and in the living space provide a spectacular view. There is one double bedroom with a bathroom with shower included, a dining room, a sofa-bed, and a fully equipped kitchen with a vitro-ceramic workspace. Due to its ceiling of glass, the room will allow you to enjoy the maximum hours of natural light during the day, and also see the stars during the night. The terrace is comfortable, private and offers an open space to the exterior. It's ideal for couples even though a third guest can sleep on the sofa bed in the living room comfortably. The bathroom and kitchen are fully equipped.

This penthouse apartment with terrace for rent in Barcelona is located in a building that has been restored to provide each unit with a "literary" theme. This is achieved by dedicating the apartment to an author related somehow to Barcelona and including a selection of books. There is a restaurant bar in the property, a cleaning service available upon request, ample security throughout, and a safety deposit box available for added peace of mind.

Conveniently situated between the Born district and the Gothic neighbourhood, this penthouse gives you easy access to the best entertainment and tourist sights available in the city. The beach of the Barceloneta is also a convenient five-minute walk away, as is the Barceloneta metro station. You don't have to go far to find top museums, Michelin star restaurants, exemplary architecture, and shopping. This part of town is akin to a village,
