Colourful, amazing location, comfortable, stylish interior... The list to describe this furnished 3-bedroom flat for rent near Plaza Catalunya that we are offering you could be more exhaustive. Explore every room and get a grasp of the different atmosphere each of them conveys.

If you start in the living room your mind will be overwhelmed by all the details in the decoration from the bottom to the top of the room. The beautiful parquet floor is covered by a white soft carpet that gives warmth to the room. Various art items like masks and paintings make this place look like a modern art museum. The original fireplace and mouldings on the high ceilings keeps the authentic elegant aspect of the property and match very well with the modern features. You could contemplate all of this every day from a comfortable three-seater leather sofa.

The dining room situated next door remains in the same spirit of the living room with its blue walls and ethnic artefacts. The kitchen is located right opposite and contains top-quality household appliances with various wood-coloured storage cabinets.

The 120-m<sup>2</sup> apartment has four private rooms: three double bedrooms and one office. All of them keep the extravagant style with bright colours and brilliant art work and paintings. One of the bedrooms has its own balcony, its little fireplace used for decoration and a massive double bed. It also has its complete en-suite bathroom with shower, WC and sink. The two other bedrooms are also very spacious and two other complete bathrooms are adjacent to them.

As for the location of the property, it is the most ideal one you can get if you wish to live in the city centre. It is situated right the heart of Barcelona, very close to Plaza Catalunya. Every shop, restaurants, bars and other facilities are right on your doorstep. As soon as you open the door, you could take a train, a metro or a bus to get anywhere around the
