

Luxury 3-bedroom apartment for rent in Madrid centre

This luxury 3-bedroom apartment for rent in Madrid centre is available for mid-term rent for a period of 32 days to 11 months.

The property is spread over 175 m² and feels very spacious and bright. It is fully furnished with stylish designer furniture and state-of-the-art lighting throughout. It is decorated in neutral tones with white walls and beautiful wooden floors, giving it an elegant and modern feel.

The reception area is large and decorated with stylish wallpaper which creates a chic atmosphere as soon as you walk into the apartment. The light and homey living-dining room has a large and comfortable corner sofa, coffee table and television. In the dining area is a dining table that can comfortably sit 6 people in this very social space. There is also a big bay window, that lets plenty of light into the room and looks out onto Calle de Alcalá.

The kitchen is completely modern and comes fully equipped with crockery, glasses and every modern appliance that you could want, including a fridge, oven, sink, induction stove, dishwasher, microwave, toaster, Nespresso coffee machine and a washer-dryer. The cabinets are an appealing dark wood, which contrasts beautifully with the white, marble worktop which continues past the cabinets to form a second dining table. It is surrounded by bar stools and makes a great space for more informal dining or chatting with friends or family over drinks.

As you continue down the hall, you will come across two bedrooms, one is a double and the other has two single beds. They both benefit from having large windows and fitted wardrobes. There is a large communal bathroom with a bath nearby. The master bedroom can be found further down the corridor. It is an excellent size with a huge double bed, an elegant feature wall, a sleek bookcase, a television and seating to relax in. It also has
