

Unfurnished apartment for rent in Barcelona centre

This is a property suitable for anyone willing to live Barcelona to its most. This unfurnished apartment for rent in Barcelona centre is ready to welcome your belongings and to let your imagination turning it into a dream home.

Your challenge is to fill the 120 m2 with style and a homey atmosphere; and we do not doubt you can manage it. You already have a beautiful parquet floor in some rooms or original typical Catalan hydraulic tiles. On the high ceilings, you will also have elegant plaster mouldings that match with the authentic style of the building.

Then, your abundant imagination will surely know how transform the large living room into a comfortable area with a TV corner, for instance, and a dining area for receiving your guests. Luckily, it is connected to a balcony; add some plants or flowers to include a bit of Mother Nature into your dwelling.

If you decide to live with your family, they will love having their own space. As for your guests? They will pay you a visit more often as they could lodge in one of the three rooms. Indeed, there is one double bedroom situated next to the living room with its balcony too. The two others are interior and are located on the other side of the apartment. Some of them have built-in wardrobes, wide enough for storing your clothes and belongings.

The kitchen is large and contains some household appliances and various storage cabinets. The bathroom is complete and has a bathtub with shower, a WC, a sink and a bidet.

What to say about location? It simply hardly beatable! The apartment is at the limit with the Old Town, few minutes' walk to Plaza Catalunya and La Rambla. Various shops, bars and restaurants surround the building. It is near Universitat metro station, train and bus stops too.
