This district was once separated from Barcelona and later became a neighbourhood of Barcelona - residents are very proud of its distinct history and therefore want to maintain it.

Although it is a bit out of city centre this area guarantees you very good transport communication due to metro stations.

This magnificent area is very close to nature, and by just a few minutes of walking, you can get to famous mount Tibidabo.

It is a perfect place to stay, which will also provide you all kinds of restaurants around, cafeterias and local shops.
