

Luxury 3-bedroom apartment for rent in calle Alcalá Madrid

This luxury 3-bedroom apartment for rent in calle Alcalá, Madrid is a little gem of interior design in the heart of the Spanish capital.

The property is spread over 210 m² and offers a lot of space and natural light. It has a balcony which overlooks Calle de Alcalá. Its stylish furniture harmoniously matches with the neutral tones and impressive feature walls, the beautiful wooden floors and state-of-the-art lighting throughout.

The reception area is large and leads straight into the living-dining room through a door. The kitchen can also be accessed directly from here. The living space is furnished with a sofa, chairs, a television, a coffee table and a rug, whilst the dining area has a modern and luxurious dining table made of marble and glass that comfortably seats 6 people, making it perfect for entertaining guests. This space is an excellent size and the large floor-to-ceiling windows found in the room let plenty of light in.

The kitchen is completely modern and comes fully equipped with crockery and glasses and every modern appliance that you could want. The cabinets built into the wall are an appealing light wood, whilst there is also a central island with sleek, white cabinets, providing an abundance of storage space. The worktops are a beautiful white marble and a breakfast bar provides a great place for more informal dining.

Down the hall, three large double bedrooms can be found. Each one is bright and a very good size and has its own stylish yet neutral colour scheme with either built-in wardrobes or a private dressing room. All of the bedrooms have the luxury of en-suite bathrooms, while there is a fourth bathroom available near the kitchen.

Its premium location right in the heart of Madrid adds up more prestige to the property. It is in an excellent central location near numerous parks, restaurants and shops and is just
