

Newly Renovated 1-Bedroom Apartment in the Heart of Sant Antoni

This newly renovated 1-bedroom apartment in the heart of Sant Antoni enjoys an excellent location and is well connected by public transport to the entire city. Located on the first floor of a modern building with a lift, it can be rented furnished or unfurnished and has double glazed windows and air conditioning.

The apartment is very spacious, the star of the show being the huge living room. The white walls, wooden floors and spotlights create a fresh and modern atmosphere and there is a large window that lets plenty of light into the space. It opens onto a big balcony with views over Carrer de Viladomat and has space for outdoor furniture to enjoy Barcelona's warm climate. The living area is very open and there a lot of space for living room and dining room furniture. There is also an excellent kitchen which is very modern with minimalistic, white cabinets and brand-new appliances which include a dishwasher, fridge, oven and microwave. There is also a separate utility room with a washing machine.

The bedroom is a very good size and has views over the street and built in wardrobes. It is conveniently located next to the bathroom, which is also very modern and has a shower.

The location is another huge plus. It is centrally located in Sant Antoni, very close to Plaça d'Espanya and many shops and restaurants. It is also very well connected to the rest of the city, as there are a variety of metro stations and bus stops nearby, which means that discovering the city will be very easy from this apartment. It is perfect for a professional, a couple, or a small family, so feel free to contact us to rent or buy this apartment today.

We also have other similar units in the building.
